

For Immediate Release

Bond Pricing Agency Malaysia is now a KLPAC Co-sponsor

KUALA LUMPUR, 24 June 2019 – Bond Pricing Agency Malaysia (BPAM) is delighted to show its support and appreciation for the local performing arts scene by co-sponsoring Kuala Lumpur Performing Arts Centre (KLPAC). In conjunction of this sponsorship, KLPAC organized a special night for BPAM and its guests, with a production of the Let's Rock 2 on 22 June 2019 at KLPAC's Pentas 1 auditorium.

BPAM has long been a fan of the performing arts. This sponsorship reflects BPAM's ongoing commitment to nurture local talents and at the same time bridge the gap between the Malaysian bond market and the art world.

Attended by more than 300 guests of BPAM, this event also marked BPAM's fifteenth year of service to the Malaysian bond market. Guests were treated to rock classics performed by Fuad of Kyoto Protocol, songstress Bihzu and singer-song writer Nick Davis, accompanied by the KLPAC Symphonic Band, the YCA Chorus and a 4-piece band for an orchestral concert of epic proportions.

"We are honoured that BPAM has been given the opportunity to be a patron of the arts by being a co-sponsor to KLPAC. Art values creativity as BPAM values innovation. Together, creativity and innovation are reflections of human endeavour and progress." said Meor Amri Meor Ayob, Chief Executive Officer of Bond Pricing Agency Malaysia in his address.

KLPAC is a non-profit organization based in Kuala Lumpur, spearheaded by group of passionate individuals. Opening its doors in 2005, it has continued to become not only a home but also a foundation for the arts and cultural scene in Malaysia to thrive on.
