BPA's ringgit sukuk data on Reuters Islamic Finance Gateway

KUALA LUMPUR: BPA Malaysia Sdn Bhd has inked an agreement to provide ringgit-denominated sukuk data to Thomson Reuters' newly launched Islamic Finance Gateway.

In a statement yesterday, BPA Malaysia said its market standard data could now be accessed through the Islamic Finance Gateway by a global audience.

It said key data included the first ever index for ringgit sukuk, league tables and comprehensive profit yield curves.

"With the addition of our profit yields and sukuk index data on Thomson Reuters' Islamic Finance Gateway, BPA Malaysia takes a step forward in strengthening its partnership with Thomson Reuters and its relationship with the Islamic finance community globally.
