KUALA LUMPUR: The new issuance of bonds and sukuk reached RM437.4bil in 2024, reflecting the market's resilience amidst global challenges.

Bond Pricing Agency Malaysia Sdn Bhd (BPAM) chief executive officer and executive director Meor Amri Meor Ayob said the issuance volume underscores the continued confidence in the Malaysian capital market as a vital financing platform for businesses and development projects.

He noted that this is despite the dip from RM547.5bil the previous year.

Meor Amri added that Malaysia must remain proactive and take a forward-thinking approach in utilising its bond and sukuk market to drive key investments in infrastructure, technology, and human capital to ensure the nation's long-term economic growth.
